I am absolutely opposed to 68 councils Development Plans being rolled into one size fits all. IT DOES NOT and I find the matter arrogant and not respecting neighbours, the environment or the impact congestion will have on our roads, which are substandard to begin with. Fix these first before anything else.

The removal of rights, the speed at which approvals have to be given, failure to notify or involve neighbour views, the absolute lack of respect for significant vegetation, now demeaned to Regulated and 23 species removed from protection. You should be ashamed or dismissed.

The necessity for change was not there, obviously developers love the LIBERALS and the next election will show our hatred for what you are doing, combine with a failure to have an effective CFS, and we are in trouble and no amount of sky watching will change that. SUGGESTION One way ride to MARS for MARSHALL, his crew and MORRISON.

Back to planning. Most Planners fail to grasp the necessity of compliance and without standards this is South Africa, not South Australia as they can build what they like where they like. Pretty much your gig. Disgusting, at least it makes voting easier to assess.
