1) Local heritage needs to be protected, whether it is a building or a streetscape.

Adelaide's charm and attractiveness is derived greatly from the older buildings that are still in use.

Think of the beauty of a pocket such as Kensington. Must be protected at all costs, but in a creative way.

2) Higher density is inevitable in some areas but the homes need to be well designed, have enough storage, provide some green space or trees.

3) neighbours must be notified of plans.

4) higher buildings should be carefully considered and not allowed open slather in certain locations.
