I am a resident of Port Adelaide/Enfield Council and deeply interested in heritage. While I note that the arguments in favour of changing the rules surrounding demolition and preservation of heritage buildings and streetscapes is consistency, I am deeply concerned that a number of changes leave one person, the Minister as the decision maker on heritage preservation. I thought we lived in a democracy not a dictatorship and I believe that decision making should be more democratic, not less so. Therefore I am not satisfied that these plans will deliver more say to the people who live in an area and love its heritage, but less than they have now.
